WHO IS CHILD EVANGELISM FELLOWSHIP?

CEF is a non-profit, interdenominational Bible teaching ministry. CEF is a faith ministry and is supported by contributions from individuals, businesses, churches and church related groups. Here in eastern Pennsylvania we have 19 chapters covering counties.

WHAT

More than 2300 students in 85 elementary schools are enrolled in Released Time Classes or After School/In School Good News Clubs sponsored by Child Evangelism Fellowship of Eastern Pa. of which CEF of York County is affiliated.

HOW

After School/In School Good News Clubs are not sponsored by school districts but by Child Evangelism. There is NO charge to the students who participate. There are no public funds used in the cost of these Clubs.

WHEN

These Good News Clubs will be held on days that there is school. On days of early dismissal there will be no After School/In School Good News Club. This time is agreed upon by the school administration and Child Evangelism Fellowship. Please see other side of this form for more information.

ACTIVITIES

Since the purpose of CEF and After School/In School Good News Club is to instruct the children in the Bible, the children will:

- Hear a Bible Lesson
- Sing gospel songs and choruses
- Be challenged to learn a Bible Memory verse
- Play a Bible review game
- Hear a missionary story

As the children attend the classes, which are held October thru April, they will progress through the Bible in a chronological order and complete it in five years.

TEACHING METHODS

Special methods are used in teaching to hold the interest of the children. Songs are taught with visual aids. Flannel graph figures are placed on flannel boards to depict the lesson being taught. Flash cards, puppets and films are also used to teach the children.

PARENTS

Only you can enroll your child in the After School/In School Good News Club by completing permission form and returning it to the CEF of York County, Inc. We look forward to having your child in Class!! If you have any questions, you may contact the CEF office.
